

British Association for German Shepherd Dogs

The Kennel Club Regulations for the Preparation of Dogs for Exhibition.

F. (Annex B)

1. These regulations must be observed when a dog is prepared for exhibit for any Kennel Club Licensed event. Objections may be referred to the Board for disciplinary action under these Show Regulations and/or for disciplinary action under Kennel Club Rule A11.
 - (a) A dog found to have been exhibited in breach of these Regulations will automatically be disqualified from exhibition at the show and from any award gained there.
 - (b) Unless the exhibitor provides a satisfactory explanation for the dog being exhibited in breach of these Regulations the he/she may be subjected to further penalties of either a fine as listed under Rule A42
 - (a) No substance which alters the natural colour, texture or body of the coat may be present in the dog's coat for any purpose at any time during the show. No substance which alters the natural colour of any external part of the dog may be present on the dog for any purpose at any time during the show.
 - (c) Any other substance (other than water) which may be used in the preparation of a dog for exhibition must not be allowed to remain in the coat or on any other part of the dog at the time of exhibition.
3. No act or operation which alters the natural confirmation of a dog or any part thereof may be performed except:
 - (a) Operations certified to the satisfaction of the Board
 - (b) The removal of dewclaws of any breed
 - (c) Operations to prevent breeding provided that such operations are notified to the Kennel Club before neutered dogs are shown.Nor must anything be done calculated to in the opinion of the Board to deceive.
4. The Board without previous notice may order an examination of any dog at any Show. Any examinations thus ordered will be made by a person having executive authority who shall have a written directive from the Kennel Club in their possession. Samples may be taken for further examination and analysis.
- 5.
6. An individual has the right to lodge an objection to a dog if he/she is the owner or handler of a dog competing in the same breed or class. An objection may, however be lodged by an official of the show or by anyone so deputised by the Kennel Club. It will be the responsibility of the individual who lodges the objection to the official (as appropriate), to substantiate the grounds for objection. The Kennel Club will substantiate the grounds for an objection made on its behalf.
7. Any objection by an individual related to an infringement of these Regulations must be made in writing to the Show secretary at his / her office before the close of the Show and the individual must produce evidence of identity at the time of lodging the complaint.
